

2 June 2021

Dear Member

This letter is to advise you of the details of the Society's next dinner and our guest speaker, New Zealander of the Year, Dr Siouxsie Wiles. The title of her speech is:

COVID-19: where to from here?

Dr Siouxsie Wiles is an Associate Professor at the University of Auckland, and the 2021 Kiwibank New Zealander of the Year - Te Pou Whakarae o Aotearoa.

Dr Wiles studied medical microbiology at the University of Edinburgh, followed by a PhD in microbiology at the Centre for Ecology and Hydrology in Oxford and Edinburgh Napier University. Dr Wiles spent almost a decade at Imperial College London, before relocating to New Zealand as a Health Research Council Hercus Fellow in 2009.

She has won awards for both her commitment to the ethical use of animals in research and for her science communication, including the Prime Ministers Science Media Communication Prize in 2013. In 2017 she published her first book, 'Antibiotic resistance: the end of modern medicine?' and in 2019 was appointed a member of the New Zealand Order of Merit for services to microbiology and science communication.

During COVID-19 Dr Wiles joined forces with Spinoff cartoonist Toby Morris to make the science of the pandemic clear and understandable. Their graphics have been seen by millions around the world and have been adapted by governments and organisations as part of their official pandemic communications.

The meeting will be held as follows:
